Alberta, Mr. Frank Skinner, Dominion

with grief at the loss of his only child intention was to kill two or more whites

The court house building, Regina, was completely gutted by fire last Sunday evening. The fire was discovered at 7:30 during church service. The caretaker went through the building before attending church and found it all right. Half an hour later the whole stair case was in flames. The land office and public works office were in this building. The valuable government law library of 2,500 volumes was completely destroyed; this loss is incalculable as many of the volumes cannot be replaced. The value was at least $10,000. The sheriff and judges libraries were both destroyed. The town ship registers and letter books of the Qu-Appelle and Swift Current districts books and a few of the sixty seven thousand five and the safe were saved from the land office. Everything else was burned. The building cost $14,000. The loss on correspondence and valuable papers cannot be estimated. The fire had obtained such headway when the alarm was given that the brigade was unable to do more than prevent it spreading to adjacent buildings.
The origin in all probability was incendiary
as caretaker McArthur discovered a small fire in the cement at 5 o'clock Saturday morning which he attributed to incendiary work. His suspicions were aroused by seeing footprints on the fresh snow. On opening the basement door full of smoke
he located the fire which he promptly suppressed and reported the matter to the sheriff.

PRINCE ALBERT, APRIL 9, 1895

From the two advertisements regarding the Territorial Exhibition to be held in Regina beginning on the 29th of July next, we infer that His Honor Lieut-Governor Mackintosh is sparing no pains in his endeavors to make the Exhibition a success, and if the farmers and business men of the Territories are equally enthusiastic we have not the least fear of the result. We think a good show can be made of everything relating to agriculture, and we also should be able to make a good show of the productions of the hidden treasures of the ground such as coal, minerals of various sorts, and other things. There is quite a variety of things which this country produces in air earth and water which would when collected together make a very respectable exhibit. The idea of offering prizes for the different objects mentioned in the advertisement is a good one and should not fail to elicit valuable information on the subjects under consideration, which will be apt to benefit the country considerably. The Territorial Exhibition is an event to which every one of us should do his utmost to bring to a successful conclusion.

The spring season is now fairly upon us with splendid weather which will in a little time give our farmers enough to do in putting seed into the ground. From all we can see at present we think we are going to have a long spell of fine weather. It is feared by many that this is going to be another dry season, which we hope will not be the case. Already a good shower of rain would be very beneficial as owing to there being so little snow just winter, the ground is now quite dry, but we trust all will be well yet. On account of the frost staying so long in the ground is a great advantage here, because notwithstanding the absence of rain, the ground is kept moist for a long time. In such case it will be a very dry season indeed in which we cannot raise some crop. A failure of crop on account of drought and in fact from any other cause, has not happened yet and we trust it will not happen this season.

The Dominion Parliament, as we have seen has been called for the despatch of business on the 13th inst. This session will be watched with keen interest by the people of the Dominion. Most momentous issues are at stake and we hope that prudence and cool judgment will guide the deliberations of our representatives. We are standing in perilous times and it will require wise statesmanship to tide us over many of the difficulties that now stare us in the face. We hope the party feelings will not prove a bar in the way of settling the difficulties that loom up. In a mixed population like ours, any undue preference for either one party or another either in politics or religion is to be deprecated, and should not be undertaken by any means.

With regard to the school question Manitoba we think has acted wisely in taking time to consider and take good advice before she will reply to the mandate issued from Ottawa. There is nothing to be got by acting hastily in the matter. The issue of the result of this agitation is fraught with important consequences in which every way it is decided. The future of our country is involved in a very serious measure in a way which those who are now concerned in patching up our constitution little dream of. We are therefore happy to observe that Manitoba is taking the matter coolly, and with a determination to know the ground on which she stands before committing herself to any policy. We are glad that she does so because the question of education, as well as the question of racial differences are equally important to every Province of the Dominion.

THE CATTLE CASE
In the Supreme Court.

WILLIAM M. Parslow and Adam Dalgleish were charged at the sitting of the Supreme Court which opened Monday week with having, on or about the 17th of October, A.D. 1901, at Prince Albert, unlawfully stolen twenty-four head of cattle the property of Peter, Fraser, Wm. Tait and others. The accused were further charged with having received the stolen cattle, knowing the same to have been stolen. The case excited the most intense interest, the court being crowded daily to its utmost capacity.

The following jury was empanelled:—J. Lestock Reid, M.L.A., Andrew Agnes, William Knox, George Glaister, Joseph Courtney and W. J. Kernaghan.

Jas. MacKay, Q.C., appeared for the Crown, and P. J. Nolan, advocate of Calgary, represented the accused.

The hearing of the evidence occupied five days, the Court sitting eight hours daily. Some fifteen witnesses were examined the most important being Edward McBeath, who volunteered evidence on behalf of the Crown.

The story told by the accused was to the effect that on the 17th of October, while hunting a grey mare belonging to the accused, he came upon the defendant Dalgleish near Maiden Lake, six miles from town, at dark, driving a bunch of cattle, some of which he identified as Mr. Fraser's. Witness helped Dalgleish to drive the cattle to the stockyards, where they were loaded that night for Calgary. The witness was severely cross examined by Mr. Nolan, who elicited several important facts.

Messrs. Tait and Fraser gave evidence as to the loss of the cattle, and of their going to Calgary and finding the stolen cattle at Cochrane.

Several other witnesses were examined with a view of corroborating McBeath's story, after which the defense called several witnesses who proved that Dalgleish was at the stock yards as late as half past four o'clock on the afternoon of the day in question and that he was in town again at 5:30 p.m. It was shown that accused was a stranger to the country. The accused swore that McBeath had reported several trades and had left town on Tuesday night bringing in the cattle for shipment on Thursday. After leaving the station on Wednesday afternoon witness went up the hill near the station and met McBeath who was coming into town with the cattle. Some letters written by the defendant were placed in his hands, but the witness became confused and gave unsatisfactory answers.

At the conclusion of the evidence Mr. Nolan addressed the jury in an able and eloquent speech on behalf of his client, after which Mr. MacKay replied for the Crown. Mr. Justice McGuire summed up on the evidence, pointing out the suspicious nature of the correspondence between McBeath and the defendant Dalgleish and commented severely on the inability of the defendant to explain the meaning of the contents.

The jury retired at half past seven o'clock on Saturday night and after three hours' deliberation returned in court with a verdict of not guilty against Parslow, but found Dalgleish guilty of having received stolen property.

On the application of Mr. Nolan, His Honor deferred sentence until after the case against McBeath had been heard. Much sympathy is felt for Dalgleish, whose character was shown by the evidence to have been irreproachable. A petition for the Lordship for leniency towards the accused is being largely a good.

McBeath was put on trial yesterday morning, and the case is now going on.

Wagner's Guide for April, supplies us with the new post office opened to date, municipal and stage changes, the latest ocean cards by rail, ocean and lake, including ocean steamship sailings, fares, accommodations, etc., new county court sittings, etc. of the Dominion electoral divisions, census inspectors and districts, both in Manitoba and the Northwest, and revised general business table to date. The information given in the Guide is well chosen to afford all the necessary information, and may be of daily use to business men and travellers, without leading them with untold baggage of remote use. A word of praise is especially due for the very clear table showing the through time cards of the chief railroads through the States to New York and Eastern points. The plan adopted enables one to map out his route and connections with perfect ease. The secret societies tables embrace much valuable information.

HOW IS THIS?

Something new even in these days of mammoth premium offers, it is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price, and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel by mail, post paid, every week for fifty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors of the coming series are Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs. Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A. Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Trevelyan and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine one year. Your first copy of the magazine and your first novel of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P.O. Order, registered letter or express.

Bicycling appears to be taking hold again this season, and every evening riders of the silent horse, can be seen (not heard) gliding around the streets and thoroughfares.

The weather of the past week has about finished the ice on the river. A small race of water is all that is needed to clear it out. The south branch is almost entirely clear, and the ferries are being got ready.

The Indian woman brought up from the Pas some time ago, charged with concealment of the birth of a child, was tried before Mr. Justice McGuire yesterday and sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

The regular monthly meeting of the Central School Board took place Thursday last. The Board decided to put the building and grounds in order and to plant a few more trees around the grounds. There was nothing of importance brought before the Board.

Mr. Gillmor this week received another consignment of picture mountings, among which are some very handsome and unique patterns. Mr. Gillmor's staff of workmen are now working full time, and those having pictures to frame should send them in at once.

"Jim" Scott, of Qu'Appelle Station, our old time mail contractor, paid the town a visit during the week. Mr. Scott has been absent about three years and says the town has improved wonderfully since he was here last. His many old friends were glad to see him again.

H. W. Newlands, advocate, returned to town Saturday last, after an absence of three years, during which time he has resided in some of the principal cities of the United States. Mr. Newlands has come back to stay and has opened an office over Toogood's confectionery store. We are glad to see him, with us again.

The lacrosse players of the town are talking of forming a club and commencing practice for the season. We have plenty of good material for a club here, and there is no reason why a team should not be sent to Regina during exhibition week, when a tournament of different games will take place.

The "Canadian Magazine" for April is very well and copiously illustrated, and in variety and general interest meets with the expectations of those who are acquainted with the most creditable and entertaining of all the literary enterprises inaugurated in Canada. The most remarkable article in the number is that by Hon. David Mills, entitled "Saxon or Slav, England or Russia?" in which the writer deals extensively with the persistent policy of Russia fears that that power may win the supremacy of the world and induce retrogression in freedom, trade, and civilization, and urges the co-operation of all parts of the British Empire and of the United States, in maintaining the supremacy of the British race, and a number of other good articles by well known authors. The "Magazine" is published by the Ontario Publishing Co., (Ltd.) Toronto, $2.50 per annum. Single copies 25 cents.

The greatest papers in Great Britain and the United States freely acknowledge the wonderful merit of the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal. The Family Herald is a great newspaper and a great family paper, but it is more than that, it is one of the greatest authorities in the world on cheese, butter, general dairying, and general farming. How a progressive, up-to-date farmer can do without the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is hard, indeed, to understand.

The Manitoba Free Press in speaking of the Uxbridge Piano says: They are genuine works of art, and reflect the highest credit upon the firm which has produced them. The old style of upright pianos is thrown into the shade. The Uxbridge Piano has a continuous book rack which will be appreciated in the playing of duets; sitting down to the piano the performer touches a lever and the keyboard is uncovered, and the hinges of the lid turn out of sight, and the instrument presents the same artistic appearance when open as when shut. The Organs manufactured by the Uxbridge company have been in use for over twenty years, and require no special description as they are so well-known and liked in the homes of the thousands over the whole world. However, the company is manufacturing a six Oct. Organ in Piano case which is having a wonderful sale. The Pianos made by the Uxbridge Piano Co. are a credit to Canadian enterprise, being equal in tone, durability and finish to the best American.

A boon to horsemen.—One bottle of English Spavin Liniment completely removed a curb from my horse. I take pleasure in recommending the remedy, as it acts with mysterious promptness in the removal from horses of hard, soft or calloused lumps, blood spavin, splints, curbs, swellings, stifles and sprains.

MONTREAL, October 24, 1877.

Messrs. DICK & CO., City.

Dear Sirs.—I used a box of your Purifier, and found it an excellent article. My horse improved so much in appearance, that I have since sold him to American buyers, making a first class sale. I also had a horse that got badly spavined in the knee. A Veterinary surgeon told me to try Dick's Blisters, which I did; and the result was that, in less than ten days, I was driving him as well as ever.

Yours truly,
THOS. McLEAY.

"Dicks Root Purifier" is the best of all the condition powders I ever used. It makes a horse thrive and feel well, improves his coat and keeps him perfectly clean in the legs, no matter how long he stands in the stable! I gave half of the first box to a gentleman who had a fine trotting stallion that had swollen in the legs, and had scratches from being out of condition, and in a few days his legs were perfectly clean, and the cracks healed rapidly.

SHOULD a man in China be unfortunate enough to save the life of another from drowning, he is entitled to the expense of supporting the saved one for the remainder of that person's life.

THERE is an immense garden in China that embraces an area of 50,000 square miles. It is all meadow land and is filled with lakes, ponds and canals. Altogether it is as large as the states of New York and Pennsylvania combined.

THE Chinese make what is called "Chi-wah," or grass cloth, from the fiber of the common nettle. It is said to make a splendid cloth for tents, awnings, etc. When made into belting for machinery it is said to have twice the strength of leather.

ALL SORTS AND INTERESTING.

THE Gauchers, the inhabitants of the Canary Islands, are said to be the remnants of the ancient race who ten thousand years ago peopled the drowned continent of Atlantis.

THE population of Nebraska has increased 134 per cent. during the last ten years. Omaha has added to its population an average of 11,000 each year of the last decade.

THE tallest woman in the world is the giantess, Evdya, who was born in Vienna twenty-six years ago, and is now on exhibition in Berlin. Her height is eight feet three inches, and she weighs 351 pounds.

Royal Lap Dogs.

Mary Queen of Scots had a favorite lap dog, which is said to have been present at the execution of its poor mistress in Fotheringhay castle. After the royal lady had been beheaded this faithful creature refused to leave her dead body and had to be carried out of the hall by force. At that period lap dogs were the pets of men as well as of women. Dr. Boleyn, a relative of the unhappy Queen Anne Boleyn, owned one "which," as it is written, "he doted on." Anne once asked him to guard her one wish, and in return he should have whatever he might desire. Knowing his affection for the dog, she begged it of him, and, of course, the dog had nothing to do but to give it to her. "And, now, madame," he said, "you promised to grant my request." "Will" quoth the queen. "Then, I pray you, give me my dog again."
